

FOCUS GROUP PARTICIPANTS WANTED

Interested in the health of our rivers? Researchers from the Keene State College and University of Rhode Island wants to hear your thoughts!

We are holding a focus group discussion to learn how you feel about rivers, dams, and the different benefits they provide. During the focus group you'll share your thoughts with a group of 6 to 8 participants and with the researchers.

The discussion should last about 2 hours.

You must be a resident of Keene, NH and at least 18 years of age to participate.

WHEN

May 29, 2019 at 5 pm

WHERE

Trustees Room
Keene Public Library
60 Winter St,
Keene, NH 03431

COMPENSATION

$40 CASH

Photo by Michael Moore / Sentinel Staff

If you'd like to participate, please send an email to priya\_behanan@uri.edu expressing your interest. You will receive a reply confirming your registration. Spaces are limited, so act quickly!

The focus group discussion will be confidential. We will not associate your name or any identifiable information with your responses and opinions. Professor Emi Uchida (Department of Environmental and Natural Resource Economics) is a co-principal investigator of this research project. This study has been approved by the University of Rhode Island Institutional Review Board.

THE UNIVERSITY
OF RHODE ISLAND
COLLEGE OF
THE ENVIRONMENT
AND LIFE SCIENCES