INFINITE WORLDS

Thursdays
January 22 and February 19
6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.
Booras Room

Welcome to Infinite Worlds, a non-traditional book club for adults focusing on speculative fiction! Each month we will have a set theme within which our members will select their own book to read. At our monthly meetings we will each share about our reads and discuss the topics and tropes that came up within the theme. Join a book club where you pick the book you read. Members are encouraged to pack a dinner to munch during discussion, and the library will provide dessert. From sci-fi to fantasy, dystopias to alternate histories, there are infinite worlds to explore! Register today to ensure we have enough supplies.

January's Theme: Fairies

February's Theme: Octavia Butler

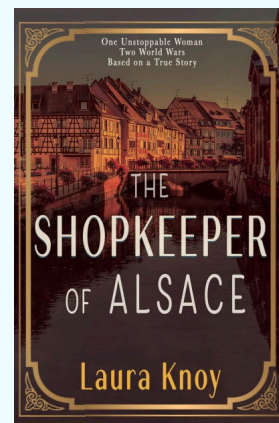

(Select any of her novels or short story collections to share and discuss with the group.)

THE SHOPKEEPER OF ALSACE DISCUSSION WITH AUTHOR LAURA KNOY

Saturday, January 17
11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Ruth Huntress Auditorium

Help us welcome award-winning journalist, New Hampshire local, and NHPR veteran Laura Knoy to talk about her debut novel: The Shopkeeper of Alsace, published in early November, 2025. Her novel follows Sarah, a Polish immigrant in France, and the dramatic family saga that unfolds with the beginnings of WWII. "From the Great War in Poland to the long-contested borders of Alsace to the remote refuge Sarah finds in the Cévennes mountains, The Shopkeeper of Alsace is an uplifting tale of family, love, resilience, and one unstoppable woman. Perfect for fans of We Were the Lucky Ones, The Nightingale, and The Alice Network, this dramatic debut brings to life a little-known corner of wartime history—and an inspiring real-life heroine you'll cheer for."

Laura Knoy founded New Hampshire's most widely respected and recognized public radio program, "The Exchange," which she hosted for 25 years. Laura has also worked at the national level; newscasting, hosting and reporting for NPR. We are excited to have her visit and discuss her new novel. Make sure to register and save yourself a seat!
